

THE CONCORD GROUP ANNOUNCES EXPANSION INTO NORTHWEST REGION

PRESS RELEASE

Contact:

Matt Ellis

Ellis Strategies, Inc.

matt@ellisstrategies.com

978-887-6561

October 20, 2008

Portland, OR— The Concord Group is pleased to announce the placement of Senior Manager Adam Seidman in Portland.

With Adam's full-time presence in Portland, The Concord Group is strengthening its presence in one of the nation's most vibrant regions allowing for greater support of existing clients and the development of new business.

"We are pleased to finally have a full-time resource on the ground in this region. We have experienced tremendous growth in our local client base and Adam's relocation to Portland will enable us to better serve those clients while also having our finger on the local pulse," said Richard Gollis, Principal and co-Founder of The Concord Group.

Headquartered in Newport Beach, California, and with additional office locations in San Francisco and Boston, The Concord Group is a premier real estate advisory firm providing strategic market insight and analysis for developers, homebuilders, investment bankers, institutional investors and public agencies. Since 1995, the firm has expanded from one office focused on southern California to take on business throughout the United States, Latin America, the Caribbean, Europe and Asia.

Adam Seidman can be reached at (503) 718-8215 or at aes@theconcordgroup.com.

###